THE ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Outreach to the Poor and Vulnerable

Diocesan Parish Counseling Services: Parishioners have access to short term counseling (up to 6 sessions) at locations throughout the Diocese. The program was developed by Catholic Charities and the Diocese of Trenton. Licensed counseling professionals are available to help parishioners through difficult issues such as marital problems, raising children, eldercare, bereavement or the stress of job loss that can be successfully addressed by brief counseling support. Pastors and parish priests of the Diocese can refer parishioners to the parish counseling services.

Parish Emergency Assistance Program:: Emergency financial assistance to individuals through the parish and coordinated by Catholic Charities is available.

Diocesan Social Service Workshops: Information and resources to parishes and Catholic Social Service agencies are available to enhance Diocesan Catholic Social Service.

Home Health Nursing Program: Free in-home nursing and home health services are available to Seniors in Greater Trenton through Mt. Carmel Guild.

Emergency Assistance: People in Mercer County are able to receive food through Mt. Carmel Guild. Over 30,000 received food through this program last year.

Your support of our parish is very important. It is important to support the Diocese of Trenton for the programs that provide a valuable ministerial resource for the parish. The diocesan programs support the services for the poor, food for the hungry and education for our children.

We are called to make a difference and share our gifts with those who are less fortunate than ourselves.

We thank you for supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Dudley was taking his seven year old grandson to school and was in a hurry. He turned at a red light where it wasn't allowed. Dudley muttered softly, "Great, I just made an illegal turn." His grandson Darius replied, "Don't worry Gramps, the police car behind us did the same thing."

The Life of Jesus

Matthew 8: 19-22; Luke 9:51-62; John 7: 2-13

JESUS LEAVES GALILEE

Towards the end of September Jesus left Capernaum for Nazareth. He found His brothers making preparations for their trip to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Tabernacles. Though they had no faith in Him, they invited Jesus to go with them to Jerusalem and stake His fortunes on a public manifestation. He said them:

"My time has not come, but your time is always at hand. The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I bear witness concerning it that its works are evil. As for you, go up to the feast but I do not go up to this feast, for My time is not yet fulfilled."

So Jesus remained behind when His relatives set out on their pilgrimage to Jerusalem. The time for His public entrance into the Holy City was months distant.

When He finally left, about a week after the others, He avoided the usual pilgrim rout and made directly for Jerusalem across Samaria. To insure accommodation, He sent some of the disciples ahead to the town where they were to spend the night. When the Samaritans recognized the disciples were Jewish pilgrims, they refused to receive them. James and John asked Christ to punish this affront but He rebuked them instead saying:

"You do not know of what manner of spirit you are; for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

About this time a Scribe came to Jesus and said he would follow Him wherever He went. Jesus replied:

"The foxes have dens, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.

To another aspirant, who wished first to bury his dead father, Jesus said:

"Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but do thou go and proclaim the Kingdom of God."

To the third, who wished to say farewell to his family, Jesus replied:

"No one having put his hand to the plow and looking back is fit for the Kingdom of God."

Summary

The way we react to opposition often indicates how well we have understood the meaning of Christ's teaching. When the disciples were refused lodging, they wanted Christ to call down fire from heaven and to destroy the inhospitable Samaritans.

But Christ reminded them that His followers were to save men, not to destroy them.

PRAYER

God is my strong salvation
What foe have I to fear?
In darkness and temptation
My light, my help is near,
Though hosts encamp around me,
Firm to the fight I stand,
What terror can confound me,
With God at my right hand.
His might thy heart shall strengthen,
His love thy joy increase
Mercy thy days shall lengthen
For the Lord will give you peace. Amen

SACRED SPACE

Christians can become so familiar and comfortable that we sometimes forget how we are meant to behave in this "Sacred Space." The space inside a Church is sacred not only because we gather for the communal purpose of celebration the Eucharist there, but also because we believe that God is present in the Eucharist reserved in the Tabernacle (Real Presence).

The Church is never meant to be a stadium or a Concert Hall and one of the ways we remind ourselves that we are standing in sacred space is by developing a sense of what I like to call sacred quiet. Sacred quiet reminds us that we are standing in the presence of a loving God. Sacred quiet reminds us to be mindful of those who are praying in this space and not threaten their quiet with needless conversation of frivolous behavior. Sacred quiet helps us to distinguish between necessary converse and unnecessary noise.

Necessary converse might be the inquiries about the health of a parishioner, the cordial greeting extended to those around us, or the offer of condolences when a loved one has died.

Unnecessary noise might be the discussion of dinner plans, the scores of last night's big game, or the frivolity associated with telling a joke. It would be easy to suggest a ban on talking in Church but such a ban would be unenforceable and not very Christian.

All of us are called to have a sense of sacred quiet particularly with regards that space that we call sacred. Please limit the ordinary and prolonged conversations to outside of the Church. Make every effort to be respectful of the Tabernacle and assume that those who might be in a pew inside the Church are there because they want to pray in peace and quiet. We should remember that when we find ourselves standing in sacred space, we are called to a sense of sacred quiet.
